(A) When a document is required to be signed in accordance with this rule, the applicant, owner, or operator signing that document shall be one of the following:

(1) In the case of a corporation, a principal executive officer of at least the level of vice president or a duly authorized representative, if such representative is responsible for the overall operation of the facility.

(2) In the case of a partnership, a general partner.

(3) In the case of a limited liability company, a manager, member, or other duly authorized representative of the limited liability company, if such representative is responsible for the overall operation of the facility.

(4) In the case of sole proprietorship, the owner.

(5) In the case of a municipal, state, federal, or other governmental facility, the principal executive officer, the ranking elected official, or other duly authorized employee.

(B) The signature on the document signed in accordance with this rule shall constitute personal affirmation that all statements and all assertions of fact made in the document to the best of the signatory's knowledge and belief are true and accurate, include all required information, and comply fully with applicable rules.

(C) Unless an alternate certification is specifically required, a document signed in accordance with this rule shall include the following certification statement:

"By signing this document I hereby certify that all statements and all assertions of fact made in the document to the best of my knowledge and belief are true and accurate, include all required information, and comply fully with applicable rules."
